

Welcome to Cosmo Books Interesting Articles, Journals, & Books

In the early hours of Wednesday 6th October 2021 Cosmo Books was entirely destroyed in a fire, from an arson incident at a neighbouring unit behind us. Nearly our entire stock of about 170,000 titles was lost, with just a handful of lucky survivors.

However, we have begun listing again and now have a small selection of material available. Lots more will be added in the coming weeks and months, and the aim is to get back to a similar range of titles as previously on offer, so do please keep checking back to see what is being regularly added.

See below for more pictures of the destruction and to read a couple of interviews with the local press regarding the fire –
